REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Each paper must be accompanied by at least one full registration and payment to guarantee publication in the proceedings. *Important: student registration does not qualify for publication in the proceedings (i.e., this rate is only available to student co-authors, assuming that another author has already paid the full registration, or student non-authors). If the only person to register for a paper is a student, he/she would have to pay the full registration.
2. At least one author of each paper must register and pay the full registration by the advance registration deadline. Authors with multiple papers must pay an additional fee of $350.00 for each additional paper.
3. In the case of papers with multiple authors, each author must register separately and pay the applicable registration fees, if he or she plans to attend the symposium.
4. For the general public attendees and co-authors who are not presenters, the early registration deadline is on October 15.
5. After October 15, late registration applies; on-site registration will be available during the symposium.
6. For papers over the page length limit, US $100 is required for each additional page and 2 additional pages is the maximum.
7. Fax the completed registration form to (702) 947-5713 (USA). Please check/print numbers clearly.
8. A payment confirmation will be sent to your email address, once your payment has been processed successfully.
9. If payment by credit card is not possible, please contact Dr. Bebis (bebis@cse.unr.edu) for alternative methods of payment.

REFUND POLICY

1. Authors are not entitled to a refund.
2. Cancellation of registration for others requires a US $100 cancellation fee and must be requested in writing by November 1st.
3. On-site registrations are not refundable.
4. Mail or fax your cancellation request to:

*Dr. George Bebis
Dept of Computer Science and Engineering
University of Nevada
Reno, NV 89557, USA.
Fax: (775) 784-1877*

5. All refunds will be processed after the symposium event.
